

The benefits your organization receives for sponsorship of one or more 2008 World Forum Events is based on the total amount of your 2008 contributions. For example, if your organization contributes $9,000 to one event, you will receive benefits at the Working Forum Benefactor level at that event. However, if you contribute $9,000 to two events, for a total annual contribution of $18,000, your organization will receive benefits at the Working Forum Leadership Circle level for both events.
