"Please keep communicating, sharing ideas, information, and expertise. The Global Leaders Program is a strong support base for ECE programs that we are doing in many ways around the world." Dhirendra Lamsal, Nepal

Global Leaders Meet in Budapest October 2008

The latest cohort of Global Leaders for Young Children met to share results of advocacy projects and participate in additional mentoring and professional development. In addition, many participated in the International Step by Step conference. Global Leaders facilitators Joan Lombardi, Judith Evans, Youssef Hajjar, and Ivan Galindo met with Bonnie and Roger Neugebauer to develop next stage plans and share the work of Global Leaders with many international partners attending the ISSA conference.
